The Newsletter of The Company of Four
November 2023 (Additional)

EXTRA EXTRA...READ ALL ABOUT IT...

Welcome from the Editor:

Hello everyone, I hope I find you all well. I'm spoiling you this month with an additional Newsletter, with a couple of updates since the 1st of the month. Normal service shall be resumed in December. Until then...

Christmas Meal:

Thank you to everyone who has contacted us so far and paid for the meal, it's great to hear of so many wishing to come along. We now only have 2 spaces available for the meal, so if you are interested in coming along, Please do get in contact.

Details from this month's Newsletter:

After the success of last year, the committee have reserved a table once again at The Cherry Tree in Woodbridge for a Christmas Meal. We have 20 seats available on a first come first served basis, booked for Sunday 3rd December at 6pm. The special menu is printed Beyond the Back Page of this month's NL. The wearing of a Christmas Jumpers will be compulsory 😊😊 If you are interested in joining us, please let Lily or Vicky know, where we would like full payment by Sunday 19th November and your menu choices. Details for BACS payment is on the bottom page under the menu.

Vicky

Christmas Sleigh:

A letter from Santa sadly arrived a couple of days after the November Newsletter went out, but I have written back to him and promised I'd send an additional one to our members looking for help. Santa is so pleased once again to make an early stop off in Woodbridge and has asked the Company of Four if they would be willing to help him out in spreading some Winter and Christmas cheer to the residents of Peterhouse Crescent. This is an ideal opportunity for us to spread the word about Pantomime, handing out leaflets and posting through people's doors, as well as fundraising for the East Anglian Children's Hospice. If you feel you can give us a hand, we are looking for about 8 - 10 volunteers and we shall be setting off from the Fred Reynolds Centre at 16:30 on Sunday 10th December, and running till around 19:30-20:00. A glass of mulled wine and a mince pie will be waiting at the end of the run to stave off some of the cold winter chills! If you feel you can lend a hand, please email back, or contact Oliver or Vicky, who will put your name down.
